WELCOME TO SIXTH GRADE!

Summer 2023

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Summer vacation for children is a time to relax, spend time with family, go camping, play outside, and engage in many other activities. It is important, however, to challenge the mind of your student continuously. Students who read daily throughout the summer improve their vocabulary, understanding, and rate of reading. Practicing math concepts also challenges the mind of your child. In essence, students who are committed to educating themselves during the summer vacation come back to school ready to start where they left off.

SUMMER MATH CONCEPTS

Throughout the summer, please review and practice multiplication and division facts. Students should also be familiar with the steps of long division. They will be evaluated for these skills within the first week of their return to school.

SUMMER READING

Please see the attached summer reading assignment.

Have a safe and happy summer vacation.

Sincerely,

Kevin Iapichino-Dorr (Science)

Mary Munsell (Language Arts)

Chris Simeone (Math)

Chris Tomala (Social Studies)

Directions:

Read and enjoy two books this summer. These should be books that you have never read before. You may choose from the many titles at your local library, or you can find your own book in a retail store or online. To help you choose books, click on the link for a list of the 2024 Intermediate Nutmeg Nominees and the 2024 Middle School Nutmeg Nominees

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1JwOXaQBzBaTPMIMt1WCuL3RISJgdTcB7/view> . You are not required to read these specific books, but they come highly recommended by other middle school students in Connecticut and may interest you, as well. Please be sure to have your parent/guardian sign off on every book you read this summer. Upon returning to school, you will complete a small task for two books of choice.

Record all the books you read this summer below. Two are required, but you may read as many as you like!

Date Started	Date Finished	Title	Author	Parent/Guardian Signature

If you fill this up, just add the additional books you read on the back of this sheet. Good for you!
